Mary Ellen R.

Janice was born in Buffalo, New York in February of 1940. She had a brother that was a state trooper who died in a car accident at the age of twenty eight and sister who died of cancer at the age of fifty five. She has one surviving sister. She attended Kensington high school and was transferred to Villa Maria High was she was sixteen years old.

She was in a marching band as a baton twirler.

She started working as a cashier at the age of sixteen and enjoy every minute of it. She has always been a cashier until joining the service.

Janice met her first husband at a coffee shop. They dated for six years before getting married in 1967. He was in the Army. She then decided to join the service at the age of thirty three. She was a secretary to the commander and made sergeant in only eighteen months. She served for two and half years because she had breast surgery and then retired from the service. She met her second husband, Paul at NCO club. It's a club for officers and air men. He was a captain in the Air Force. They dated for eighteen months and got married in 1976. They did foster care for new born babies, till they were adopted within forty five days. That something her and her husband really enjoyed doing. They were married for thirty four years until he passed away. She moved to North Carolina in 1995 when she was still married and then moved to Orlando in 2009 to live with her daughter.

She has one daughter, two step children, four grandchildren and two great grand.

Happiest moment in her life was when she got married the second time. She is most proud of joining the service because it gave her a new prospect on life. Her experience in the military taught her how to work together in harmony. Most important lesson learned, is to be nice to everyone, no matter what the situation maybe.

Something interesting about Janice is that she went to beauty school. She wanted to work with the elderly and handicap. She worked out of her house helping people who could not afford to help themselves. She would pick them up and didn't charge them as much as they would in a beauty parlor and took them home. She did that for four years.

Funny Story, but not too funny about Janice. She used to go to Vegas every two years with her girlfriends. She loved to play black jack. After ten years she was invited to a tournament with all expenses paid. She accepted the offer but she had a heart attack three day before and was so upset she could not attend. She took it upon herself to call the casino from the hospital and they honored her with another invite, she did eventually go after getting better. She came in sixth place. She enjoys going to the casino, playing bingo, poker and going to the movies.

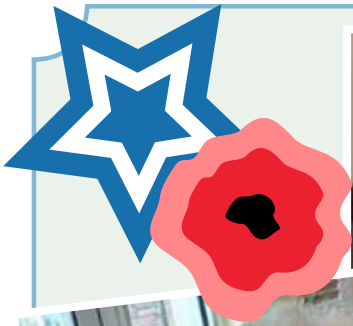

Janice moved to Okeechobee in 2017. She then moved into Grand Oaks on 4/24/2022 she loves living here because she said the food is good and she love to socialize with the other residents.
